

BRAND IDENTITY · VERSION 1.0

NTA, Inc.

ACCOUNTING & ADVISORY
NICHOLAS T. AVELLO, CPA

Where regulatory expertise meets personal service.

01 · THE ASSIGNMENT

A brand refresh for a practice with four decades of standing.

Established, not dated

Signal the licence and the tenure without looking like a firm that stopped updating in 1998.

Two rooms, one voice

Credible to hedge funds and broker-dealers; approachable to individuals and small businesses.

Built to be used

Works at 16 pixels and on a building sign, in full colour and on a fax.

THE MARK

02 · THE MARK

A ledger cell with registration marks.

- 01 The square is the cell of a ledger — the smallest unit of the work.
- 02 The corner ticks read two ways: printer's crop marks, and the tick of a reconciled line.
- 03 Diagonal placement keeps the mark asymmetric — it reads as a detail, not a border.

03 · PRIMARY LOCKUP

The default signature.

Site header · letterhead · proposals · signage. Clear space equals half the mark's height on all sides.

04 · SECONDARY LOCKUPS

Two alternates for tight spaces.

The full lockup never appears below 120px wide — below that, the stacked version or the mark takes over.

05 · REVERSED

The mark inverts; the gold holds.

DESCRIPTORS

Body copy, forms, navigation, tables, and every descriptor in the logo system.

PRIMARY TAGLINE

Where regulatory expertise meets personal service.

Plain, not simplified

Say "Form 1099" if that's the thing.

Specific over superlative

"Since 1983," never "industry-leading."

Calm

No urgency tactics, no exclamation marks.

First person singular

One CPA, not a faceless "we."

The mark degrades in deliberate steps.

The circular crop gets its own rule.

Light

Banner content clears the left third — LinkedIn's avatar overlaps that corner, and mobile crops the sides.

The most-seen asset in the system.
